What the Sea Cadets offer:

We are a uniformed organisation for 9 - 17 year olds and adult volunteers.

(Juniors 9 – 11 years, Sea Cadets 12 – 17 years and Royal Marines Cadets 13-17 years)

- Exciting opportunities to learn new skills, build self-confidence, develop leadership but most importantly have fun and make new friends.
- A wide range of onshore, inshore and offshore activities.
- Recognised External Qualifications:
 - Such as RYA sailing & navigation, BTEC (teamwork, personal skills and citizenship), Duke of Edinburgh, St John`s Ambulance (youth first aid & first aid at work)
- Activities continue throughout the summer holidays.

Opportunities at Bridge of Don

Learn New Skills

- first aid
- catering
- marine engineering
- navigation
- ropework
- piping
- kayaking
- powerboating
- rowing
- sailing
- windsurfing

Royal Yachting Association qualifications gained are recognised worldwide. We also actively provide opportunities for teamwork and practising leadership skills.

Community

We are proud to be active in the community by:

- Supporting Poppy Scotland Fundraising
- Parading on Armed Forces Day and Remembrance Sunday
- Supporting the Fisherman's Mission
- Supporting Bridge of Don Community Council with various community activities.

Competitions

Regional, Area and National events are organised across the full range of shore and water based activities.

The unit sends teams to many Regional competitions, with our cadets regularly progressing up to Area and National levels.

A great opportunity for them to challenge themselves and meet other cadets.

Trips

Many local and residential national courses are available from the Sea Cadets:

- Offshore: on power vessels, yachts and our tall ship The Royalist
- Onshore: catering, piping and marching, football and summer camps

These are offered at a nominal cost to the parent, with travel to and from the activity part of the package.
